McKinley Will Make an Address Tonight.

GORDON OF GEORGIA.

The Ex-Confederate General Arrives in the City.

The Big Parade Takes Place Tomorrow Morning.

Pittsburg, Sept. 10.—The full forces of the Grand Army are in the city this morning and have complete possession. Many Western departments arrived, among them those of Colorado, Wyoming, Minnesota, Missouri and Michigan.

The parade of naval veterans took place this morning. Over 1,000 men under the command of Rear Admiral J. D. Osborn, were in line. The old salts were cheered all along the line of march, which extended through the principal downtown streets, along Fifth avenue and Smithfield streets and over the Allegheny.

In the parade were carried many historic relics of naval warfare, among them the torn and stained banner which floated over the good old Kearsarge when she added lustre to the American standard on the high seas.

Miss Carrie Lowe, daughter of Gen. A. L. Lowe of Fort Worth, Texas, was in the parade carrying the colors of the Dupont naval association of Texas. She is a guest of Admiral Osborn, having stopped off here on her way to New York. She was the lone representative of the Lone Star state in the parade of the salts, and her appearance elicited unbounded enthusiasm.

Commandant W. S. Buckland was in command of the armed camps, which presented a martial front.

The first Ohio regiment sons of veterans occupied the right of the line together with the armed camps. The column was reviewed by the national officers from a stand on Cedar avenue, Allegheny.

Miss Daisy Title, the mascot of the naval veterans who arrived yesterday from Cincinnati, was in the parade. She was dressed in regulation sailor uniform, and marched beside Admiral Osborn, acting as his messenger. Miss Title has been the mascot of the organization since its inception, and is a general favorite among the tars.

The naval veterans went into their annual convention this afternoon. Thirty-four associations were represented. Commander-in-chief Adams of the G. A. R. arrived this morning.

Governor Patterson is here. The arrangements are perfected for tomorrow's big parade of veterans when 90,000 men are to be in line.

Five hundred extra policemen are on duty and the best of order prevails. Tomorrow will be a general holiday, as the mayors of Pittsburgh and Allegheny have issued proclamations, asking that as much business as possible be suspended, so that as many people may see the parade as possible. Down town streets are almost impassable, so great are the crowds which closely pack the sidewalks. It is expected that 300,000 strangers will be in the city tonight exclusive of the veterans and their relatives. Windows on Fifth avenue and other prominent downtown streets are being sold at premiums for tomorrow's parade.

All the national officers of the Woman's Relief Corps arrived this morning and have taken rooms in the Monongahela house. Noyes post of Cincinnati will tonight give a reception to all the Ohio delegates at City hall. The gathering will be addressed by Governor Patterson of Pennsylvania and Governor McKinley of Ohio.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock a carriage drive was given to the visiting ladies of the relief corps by the entertainment committee of the Pittsburgh ladies. The drive was through Schuylkill park and other points of interest in the city. The seventh regiment of Pennsylvania Infantry held its reunion this afternoon at the Eleventh Pennsylvania reserves, the Second Ohio cavalry and the Fourth Pennsylvania cavalry. Senator Quay's regiment, the Eighteenth Pennsylvania, will reunite this evening and the senator will be present.

Senator J. B. Gordon of Georgia, who was second in command of the Confederate army at Appomattox, is in the city today and met a number who were in the union army when Lee gave his sword away. Senator Gordon will deliver a lecture before leaving the city.

Resolutions are to be presented at this afternoon's session of the Naval Veterans' association, asking congress to establish a college for the education of daughters of soldiers and sailors.

John Driscoll of Milwaukee, a member of the Naval Veterans' association, was taken to a hospital today. The physicians say that he is insane and that his condition is precarious.

Heavy showers began shortly after noon and the indications point to a steady rain during the rest of the day. But the visitors, especially those from country districts are rather pleased than otherwise and stand under awnings in groups and discuss the effect of the downfall upon those who are not already gathered.

Gov. McKinley of Ohio, arrived here this morning and has since been holding an informal, but none the less enthusiastic levee at the residence of C. L. Magee, whose guest he is.

Mrs. Nettie E. Gunlock, the only candidate for national president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., is here with the Illinois department.

Miss Start Up.

New Bedford, Mass., Sept. 10.—The city mills started up today at the old rate of wages. About 20 operatives resume work. There is no other change in the strike situation.

COXEY'S CURIOUS CIRCUS.

Carl Brown's Democratic Art Makes Ohio People Stand Aghast.

MASSILLON, Sept. 10.—Grand Commander Carl Brown of the Commonwealth of Christ, received his friends in Mr. Coxe's amphitheater this morning in bare feet, arrayed in trousers and undershirt and pointed with pride to the evidences of his skill in performing miracles on circus wagons. On the reverse side a white horse labeled Coxe is being ridden by a red-headed circus girl who is called the commonweal, while a gentleman named Taylor astride of a mule looks up and says: "Mein Gott! dot Coxe was a runner." Off in paceship somebody else says: "Wall street left for once." The band wagon has on its rear end a picture of the great Coxe peering through prison bars, and above the picture is the word "Unity." On either side are representations of a storm-tossed ship and a mountain house, both supposed to be "mortgaged to Wall street."

The literature wagon bears a quotation from Victor Hugo, reading: "The paradise of the rich is made out of the hell of the poor." Walter Scott is drawn upon for this: "Hereditary bondsmen, know ye not who would be free themselves must strike the blow?" to which Coxe adds: "Use the ballot instead of the blow." A picture on one side seems to suggest that "even the horses are parading for Coxe's good road-hill" and on the other a reformed leopard named "Interest on bonds" is crouching in an African jungle, where he is thought to be lying in wait for taxpayers.

The platform wagon, on which the elect will speak, is covered by portraits of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Grant, and pictures of Mr. Brown calls "three great epochs in American history," namely, the revolution in 1776, the war of the rebellion, and Coxe's march on the capital. In the latter picture Mr. Brown, Coxe and Miss Mamie Coxe loom up conspicuously, and the dome of the capitol is seen in the distance.

FREE THINKERS FINISH.

They Close Their Session Today.—Artz Will Be One of the Lecturers.

The Kansas Free Thinkers closed their session at Lincoln post hall this morning. There were three meetings at the hall Saturday and on Sunday morning at City park John E. Reinsburg spoke to a large audience on "Contradictions of the Bible." In the afternoon Mrs. Lois Waisbrooker spoke at the park her subject being "Conditions Required for Perfect Motherhood." "Until all conditions pertaining to motherhood are studiously ignored we can have no real human race," she said. "The sex conditions as they now exist are responsible for the filling of our jails and asylums."

There were nearly 500 people present. Prof. W. S. Bell also talked on "Liberty and Morality."

The evening meeting was held at the hall and a good many people could not gain admittance. John Radford spoke on "The New Centralization." The speech was a criticism of the present financial conditions and leaned to the sub-treasury idea.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Etta Semple of Ottawa; secretary, Moses Harmon; treasurer, Marie Greene. The following lecturers were appointed: Alexander Rose of Lawrence, James Pontius of Washington and H. H. Artz of Topeka.

The next meeting of the association will be held in Ottawa in August, 1895. The association now numbers about 350 in Kansas.

HARGRAVES RESOLUTION.

It Will Be Voted by the Mayor at Tonight's Council Meeting.

Mayor Harrison has decided to veto the resolution passed at the last meeting of the council requesting him to remove the sidewalk and sewer inspector, Richard Hargrave, and appoint a good Republican in his place. He said in reference to the matter and the reason his name was not presented to the council for confirmation: "I hold that temporary appointments which are intended to run for only a short time cannot be submitted to the council for confirmation because the statute provides that when appointed and confirmed by the council they must for two years. I also think that the council room is a place to transact public business for the whole city and not a place to air political grievances or try and make political capital."

PERRY, OK., FLOODED.

Two Waterpumps Make Floods Waist Deep in the Streets.

PERRY, Ok., Sept. 10.—This city and vicinity was visited by two waterpumps last night. Many business houses were inundated and in the low lands many homes were filled with water and inmates were compelled to wade out of their houses and leave their goods behind.

In some of the streets of this city water was waist deep.

EMPHORIA, Kan., Sept. 10.—The remains of H. C. Cross were interred in Maplewood cemetery yesterday with Masonic and civic honors. Prominent men from all parts of the state were present, and the M. K. & T. railway ran a special from Parsons, bringing several hundred of its employees.

MR. PEPPER HERE.

The Kansas Senator Arrives at Home Today.

This Congress a "Scandalous and Stupendous Failure."

Says Mr. Pepper—A General Grab Game

BY REPRESENTATIVES.

Each Trying to Get What He Could.

The Senator Tells Why He Voted for Protection

ON SALT AND WOOL.

Humiliating Surrender to the Sugar Trust.

Senator and Mrs. Wm. A. Pepper arrived in Topeka at 1 o'clock today on a Rock Island train.

"I am delighted to get home," said the senator to a JOURNAL reporter. "I think Topeka is the handsomest place in the country and I have never thought it looked so pretty as now. I feel prouder of my little home because it is home, than I ever have before."

"Do you consider the work of the last congress satisfactory?" asked the JOURNAL man.

"Do I?" and the senator looked a trifle ruffled. "I consider the Fifty-third congress the most stupendous failure in the history of the nation. Not a single act of public benefit was passed."

"What is your opinion of the new tariff bill?"

"I don't like to talk about it. The proceedings were so scandalous that I do not enjoy talking about it. I speak of the general discussion and the complete surrender of the Democrats to a handful of men. There were thirty-eight northern and southern Democrats in favor of what has always been advocated by the Democratic party, but there were six eastern men, who call themselves Democrats, but who are really Republicans, controlled that majority in the senate."

"At no time could they get a majority to support the proposed measure without a caucus, so they held the caucus and gave instructions to have a bill prepared which would be satisfactory."

"Then the sugar trust came in with a demand that the sugar schedule be changed, and the six men stood out and said we will have this bill or nothing, and then came the surrender. How humiliating to see a large body of men lay down their arms before a half dozen."

"Why did you vote to put a duty on salt?" asked the reporter.

"I voted for a duty on both salt and wool, though I am really in favor of both free salt and free wool. I discovered that the tariff legislation meant legislation in favor of class interests, and the revenue feature was completely lost sight of. I showed the senate that all our Kansas salt makers wanted was to retain their territory—that is that some duty be put upon salt so that the area they supply might not be encroached upon by foreign salt."

"I favored a duty on wool because the bill proposed putting a duty on woolen goods, and I wanted the Kansas farmers who raise the wool to be treated as well as the manufacturers."

"This whole thing was a grab game and I simply did my best to see that Kansas people were treated as well as other classes."

The reporter informed Senator Pepper of the withdrawal of Congressman Hudson in the Third district. "I know absolutely nothing about that," said the senator, "but I understood he was to be taken off for political reasons. If it is true that he has declined to be a candidate for business reasons I am not surprised. Anyone who expects to make money out of the position will be disappointed."

The senator is 63 years old today but he bears his age well and looks better and younger than when he last left Topeka.

Engineers' New Order.

DENVER, Sept. 10.—Two hundred delegates to the second national convention of the Traveling Engineers' association, arrived in Denver today from the east. The convention will open in this city tomorrow. The association is a new non-secret organization, whose object is to improve the locomotive engineer service of American railroads.

The Public Should Be Generous.

No such races have been held for years anywhere as those we are to have in Topeka this year, without the public being called upon to contribute largely to defray the expense. The managers of our races only ask each person to buy a ticket. It is hardly possible to ask for less.

The Pope Wanted to Interfere.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—A special dispatch received here today from Rome, says that the pope is said to have expressed a wish to arrange the troubles between China and Japan, but was prevented by France, who feared that the intervention of the church would undo the work France was carrying on in the east.

Locomotive Firemen.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 10.—The fourth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen began in this city today, with 150 delegates present. The entire day's session will be given up to the reading of the report of Grand Master Sargent, who occupies the chair.

GREATEST IN THE WORLD.

Mrs. Stanford to Make the Stanford University Such.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—The Examiner says: Mrs. Stanford has paid off the last of the debts due from the Stanford estate and has this early got its great properties in almost perfect order. She is now anxious for a distribution of the estate, so that she may secure personal control of the millions of which she is now executrix.

As soon as the distribution is ordered, she will begin operations in a new field. Then, under her personal supervision, the erection of half a million dollars worth of new buildings and the early expansion of the university to three times its present magnitude, will be begun.

The three great estates, the Palo Alto, Grizzly and Vina ranches, 8,000, 17,000, and 60,000 acres, respectively, on which Senator Stanford lavished expense and experiments, have been put on a strictly business basis.

The brandy at Vina, of which Senator Stanford never sold a gallon, is still going to Europe and, elsewhere in immense quantities.

The biggest claim against the estate is the $15,000,000 claim which Attorney General Olney has presented on behalf of the government to Mrs. Stanford, as executrix.

This suit is an annoyance to Mrs. Stanford, because so long as it is unsettled it will prevent her from spending a dollar of the estate in behalf of the university.

The plans for the early enlargement of the institution include a large amount of new apparatus, the early purchase of 50,000 books, the employment of a great many new professors and instructors and the opening of new departments.

The plans for the future, as settled upon, include a conservatory of music that shall be equal to anything in America, the equipment of a great art school department of professional instruction, etc.

As soon as distribution is effected, the Stanford university will at once have added to its available income the income of $17,000,000. It will from that time have practically the income of the entire Stanford fortune.

which in times of ordinary prosperity would exceed, it is stated, on good authority, $1,500,000 a year. Its income will be three times that of Harvard, the richest of American universities, and greater than that of the University of Berlin.

MASSACRED.

A Rumor That a Government Survey Party Has Been Slain.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—A rumor is current here that a government survey party has been massacred on the Rio Grande below El Paso. The latter city has been wired for confirmation and particulars.

Two parties of the geological survey have been at work in Texas moving toward Fort Davis.

Topographer Charles Urquhart and Assistant Topographer Granger found one party and Topographer C. C. Russell the other.

It is also probable that Geologist R. D. Hill and Assistant Geologist T. W. Vaughn have been at work in the vicinity of El Paso.

FIRE FALLS IN CHICAGO.

A Great Ball of It Knocks a Hole in the Earth.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Rev. Dr. E. C. Town reports that during last night's thunder storm, a large ball of fire fell in a vacant lot near the business portion of the suburb of Austin.

A hole several feet in diameter and of considerable depth was torn in the ground, and the earth for twenty feet around was seared and cracked.

PERRY'S MAYOR EXCITED.

He Draws a Revolver at the Republican Primary Election.

PERRY, Ok., Sept. 10.—During a Republican primary to select delegates to the county convention of this county Hon. W. A. Stone, mayor of Perry and Lawyer Houston and others became involved in a quarrel over a Populist's voting and the mayor drew his revolver. The result was a terrible row.

Dick Clunkert, policeman, tried to arrest the mayor but his honor stood off the officer.

BURNT OUT THE HEART.

Twenty Acres of Dalton, Ohio, Swept Away by Fire.

MASSILLON, O., Sept. 10.—Twenty acres in the heart of the village of Dalton, O., was devastated by fire between 2 o'clock and daylight this morning, over fifty houses having been destroyed, and the loss is beyond computation.

The insurance is almost nothing. Assistance was sent by special train from Massillon, Orrville and Canton. The village water supply was soon exhausted and the wells and cisterns were emptied. Early in the morning a welcome rain began to fall and the flames died out. The loss is $200,000.

Jointist McWilliams Again.

Jointist John H. McWilliams, who gained a great deal of notoriety by making affidavits against Chief Lindsey and Captain Gish, was taken out of the county jail and taken to the district court on the supposition that his habeas corpus case was to be argued. It had been set for Saturday but the court was too busy to hear it and was continued until today. On the motion of McWilliams' attorneys, R. B. Welch and A. H. Vance, the case was continued until next Monday. This habeas corpus case is the settlement of the one by which he was released from the city prison.

They Were All Near Death.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 10.—An explosion of gas occurred in No. 4 slope of the Pennsylvania Coal company at Pigeon ton at noon today. One hundred miners at work had a narrow escape. All got out, however, with the exception of Superintendent Bryden, who is still entombed. Searchers are now looking for him.

Today in Court.

Today is a general motion day in the district court. No criminal cases will be heard until tomorrow, and civil business is occupying the whole time of the court.

HUDSON QUILTS.

The Populist Nominee in the Third District.

Refuses to Run for Congress This Time.

HE FORESEES DEFEAT

Because the Democrats Will Not Endorse Him.

But Will Vote For Their Nominee, Sapp.

Chairman Breidenthal of the Populist state central committee this morning received definite information of the withdrawal from the congressional race in the Third district of Jeff Hudson, the present congressman.

Hudson was nominated as a fusion candidate by the Populists two years ago to succeed Ben Clover, and was elected by a majority of 2,200 over Ex-Governor Humphrey. This year the Populists renominated Hudson, but the Democrats refused to endorse him and have nominated W. F. Sapp of Galena.

Hudson is a shrewd enough politician to see that he could not be re-elected without the Democratic endorsement and refuses to run.

The Populist convention which renominated Hudson was held at Cherryvale, June 27, but Hudson had up to Saturday neither accepted nor rejected the nomination. The congressional committee met at Cherryvale Saturday and Hudson made a speech, in which he declined to be a candidate for re-election.

Chairman Breidenthal says Hudson is not ambitious, politically, and has for some time been thinking of retiring to private life again, as his business interests demand his personal attention.

The Populist congressional committee has called another convention to be held at Cherryvale, September 27, when another candidate will be nominated.

Chairman Breidenthal says he is confident his party will elect the congressman in the Third district but who the nominee will be no one can tell.

State Senator Reiley of Parsons, ex-Speaker Dunsmore and El Ridgely of Parsons have all been mentioned in connection with the nomination.

Senator S. S. Kirkpatrick, the Republican candidate is making a vigorous canvass of the district.

WILL BE PROSECUTED.

The Principals of Sunday's Prize Fight Will Get a Taste of Criminal Prosecution.

County Attorney H. C. Safford says the principals who took part in the prize fight yesterday (referred to in another place) will be prosecuted. The fight did not occur in this county but it was arranged here, and the fighters went into training in Topeka.

If Mr. Safford can prove these things, and the sheriff's office has agreed to furnish him the information, he says he can secure conviction, as these constitute a separate offense from the fight yesterday.

TWO LARGE SALES.

The Coolidge Property and the Ragland Property Sold for $3,500 Each.

This has been sold at the sheriff's office and a large amount of property was sold to satisfy orders of the court. The sales were larger than usual, too, and there were two sales for cash, in which the price exceeded $3,000.

The Coolidge property on Harrison street, across the alley from the Topeka club, sold for $3,505 in cash to H. Sharum. This property was once valuable, but has fallen somewhat into decay. Bearing incumbrances it is said to be worth $10,000.

The Ragland property on East Tenth street near the Santa Fe tracks, also went for $3,100. Its first and second mortgages amount to $6,800. The litigation in this case is entitled Hiram Dunkel vs. Benjamin Brockert et al.

Among those who left yesterday for Pittsburg, Penn., to attend the Grand Army reunion were: Capt. John Sutherland, daughters Nannie and Sadie and Miss Jennie Porter; J. E. Burris and wife, Jacob Wagner, Mrs. Siebert and daughter, Robert Douglas and John Wolf.

J. B. Larimer, a trustee of the First Presbyterian church, received a letter from Prof. H. S. Wilder today in which he resigns his position as organist and musical director of the church. He is in New York finishing his musical education, and he professes to remain in the east.

A GRATEFUL CHANGE.

A Cool "Snap" That Reminds People Fall is Here.

All nature is rejoicing today in a delightful change of temperature. The thermometer fell 30 degrees last night, from 95 to 64. Many a shivering form got up last night to shut the windows and hunt an additional quilt. Today the thermometer indicates 75 degrees.

Heavy rains fell in various portions of the state last night, but none here. At Wichita 2.70 inches fell; at Dodge City, 3, and at Lebo, 7.4. The weather will continue mild for three or four days, Observer Jennings says.

NEW SCAVENGERS.

What It Will Cost to Have Dead Animals Removed.

The mayor has appointed A. W. Brown, T. W. Durham and R. T. Stewart as scavengers under the new scavenger ordinance. By the terms of the appointments Mr. Brown and Mr. Durham are to have nothing to do with removing dead animals, and Mr. Stewart is to have exclusive charge of removing dead animals at the following prices: when paid by the city: Horses and mules $2.50 per head; cows, bulls and steers, $1.35 per head; yearlings and 2-year-old heifers, bulls and steers, 90 cents per head; calves, 70 cents per head; dogs, 25 cents per head, and cats 14 cents per head.

These prices are 10 per cent below those named in the ordinance and from 30 to 50 per cent lower than was Mr. Lowe's contract.

Mr. Stewart is not to interfere in any way with the work or duties of the other scavengers. Each of these parties have signed a written acceptance of the appointment upon these conditions.

BESSEMER IN PERIL.

Fighting Fire to Keep the City From Being Blown Up.

DERRICK, Sept. 10.—A special to the News from Bessemer, Mich., says: The entire city fire department and several hundred citizens were fighting fire all last night in the vicinity of the Gagebille mine.

Had the fire reached the mill, and explosion followed, the entire city would have been demolished and hundreds of lives lost, as the mine is within the city limits and has a large stock of dynamite on hand. A strong wind prevails and the danger is not yet over.

HATED NON-UNION MEN.

All of Swift's Coopers at Omaha Quit Work—Strike May Spread.

OMAHA, Sept. 10.—All the coopers employed in Swift & Co.'s packing house at South Omaha struck this morning because the manager refused to discharge two non-union men who were employed during the recent strike of the butchers. The strikers announce that if the men are not discharged by tomorrow all the coopers in the other houses in South Omaha will strike.

ANONYMOUS LETTER.

Received by Senator Householder Threatening to "Expose" Him.

State Senator M. A. Householder, president of the state board of education, today received a letter written in a disguised hand dated at Topeka and signed John C. Dunham, 416 West Eighth street, in which he said he had placed absolute proof in the hands of Householder's enemies of his being a thief and a boodler.

The letter said proof had been furnished that the state board had received $500 from the railroads for voting against the Greenlee bill.
